

CONTENTS

- I. Peer Support – the one-on-one: Introduction
 - A. Focus.
 - B. Rationale For Peers
 - C. Definitions and role expectations
- II. BASIC PRINCIPLES OF PTM
 - A. Introduction
 - B. Principles and Assumptions
 - C. Practice Implication Exemplified
 - D. Implication for Peer Support
- III. Critical Incident Stress: Potential Causes
 - A. WHAT'S THE PROBLEM?
 - B. CIS: Types of incidents
- IV. Symptomatology
 - A. Stress versus traumatic stress
 - B. Criteria for acute stressor (Exceptional or CIS)
 - C. Traumatic stress: Issues of the head - The reptilian brain response
 - D. Stress Symptomatology
 - 1. Acute Symptoms
 - 2. Delayed Symptoms
 - 3. Triggers
 - E. Degree of symptomatology
 - F. Positive Reactions to Trauma
- V. The Helping Process Explained
 - A. Introduction
 - B. Stages in the helping relationship
 - 1. Self-assessment Stage
 - 2. Connecting Stage: Contact and Contract
 - 3. Helping Stage – Story, Impact, and Current Functioning
 - C. Summary
- VI. Four Active Listening Skills
 - A. The Paraphrase
 - B. The Probe
 - C. The Clarification
 - D. The Reflection
- VII. Psychological Educational Defusing Checklist
- VII. Defusing Skills Development
 - 1. Contracting
 - 2. Peer Intervention style – Hot, Warm, and Cool
 - 3. Conducting an effective story stage
 - 4. Symptom Education
 - 5. Listening for distorted thinking: the affirm and reframe intervention
 - 6. Making A Referral: Advice for Peers
 - 7. Ethical Considerations For Peers
 - 8. Peer Defusing Guide and Observer Sheet

BIBLIOGRAPHY

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

ORDER FORM